CORNERSTONE LAID FOR A NEW CHURCH

First Methodist Congregation Holds Services Sunday in Connection With Placing the Stone, Placing the Stone.

Amid the confusion and noise caused by passing automobiles and motorcycles, and neighborhood boys on roller skates, the First Methodist church folks Sunday afternoon iaid the cornerstone of their new house of worship.

After the singing of a hymn by the company assembled, the pastor, Revilerman G. Porter, rend the ritual. Prayer was offered by Rev. Adolf Hoffman, Rev. Thomas Harwood, of Aibuquerque, led in the responsive reading, and Mrs. R. J. Wilson, Miss Elizabeta Fry. Henry Durkee and E. E. Noid sang the shthem, "High Above Ail Nations," The address was given by Rev. S. Alonsophing, and Mrs. R. J. Wilson, Miss Elizabeta Fry. Henry Durkee and E. E. Mr. Porter made a few remarks as to the morgress of the work, and then a proposed to the control of the second through the control of the control of the work, and then a smaller took him several hours to get out and get back to El Paso.

Mr. Porter made a few remarks as to the mogress of the work, and then gave a list of what was going into the corneratone; the various books and papers were deposited in their long resting place, the stone was pushed back into place ready for the cement, and the services were concluded, which fairly launched this new Ei Passo enterprise. The new edifice is at the corner of Montana and Lee streets. Carefully selected Mt. Franklin blue stone is being used and put together in broken ashlar style. The architecture is English Gothic.

The congregation will continue to meet in the Myrile avenue church until the basement of their new home is ready for occupancy, which it is expected will be some time in April.

THINK SOUTHWEST SHOULD BE KEPT IN SAME DISTRICT Benders of the scutiewed do not agree on the location for the regional reservements, but all agree that New Mexico, west Texas and Arizons should be kept in the same district and anat El Paiso is the logical bouldan for the branch of the regional bank. T. M. Wingo, secretary of the charring house committee, has recoived replies to all of his inquiries, which were sent out to the bunkers of the continues. They answered promptly and all agreed that the scutilivesters trade territory should be kept together under the regional bank and that ish Infuence on Wheat; Corn Prices Sag.

Chicago, III., Jan. IR.—Announcement that no unusually cold weather is indicated at present for any portion of the United States had a hearish influence today on wheat. Selling pressure, however, was not heavy. The market opened unchanned to the lower and later sagged all around.

The close was weak, is to the under last might.

Prespects of decreased feeding carried the corn market down grade. Prices here care market down grade. Prices here started is to be lower to a shade up and then underwent a general decline.

The close was easy, by to is to be not lower. nies of other grain.

First males of provisions ranged from 1160 fower to a rise of 10c and there was a subsequent additional gain.
